

Praise the Lord who heals the broken hearted

Psalm 146

Music by Martin Foster

Praise the Lord who heals the bro - ken - heart - ed.

1. Praise the Lord for he is good; sing to our God for he is lov-ing: to him our praise is due.

Psalm 146 (147) 1-6 r. v.3
• 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B

2. The Lord builds up Je - ru - sa - lem and brings back Is - rael's ex-iles, he heals the bro - ken heart - ed, he binds up all their wounds. He

The first system of the musical score consists of a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line is in a single treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature. The lyrics are "heals the broken heart-ed, he binds up all their wounds. He". The piano accompaniment is in a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with the same key signature and time signature. It features a steady bass line and chords in the right hand.

fix - es the num - ber of the stars; he calls each one by its name.

The second system continues the musical score. The vocal line has the lyrics "fix-es the number of the stars; he calls each one by its name.". The piano accompaniment continues with similar harmonic support.

3. Our Lord is great and al - migh - ty; his wis - dom can ne - ver be

The third system begins with a section number "3." and the lyrics "Our Lord is great and al-migh-ty; his wis-dom can ne-ver be". The time signature changes to 2/4. The piano accompaniment also changes to 2/4.

mea - sured. The Lord rai - ses the low - ly; he hum - bles the wick - ed to the dust

The fourth system continues with the lyrics "measured. The Lord raises the low-ly; he hum-bles the wick-ed to the dust". The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support for the vocal line.
